Leopard Award

This award is presented throughout the year to members of the support, plant operations, and public safety staff who have made an exceptional contribution to the College by working on a special project or event, or providing some type of extraordinary service beyond their normal job responsibilities. Nominations may be made by any College employee and should be forwarded to the nominee’s supervisor. The supervisor, if in support of the nomination, should forward a letter of support to the Division Head and the Office of Human Resources for review. Award recipients will be recognized by their department and will receive a $150 in their paycheck.
